South Carolina Arts Alliance (SCAA) is a nonprofit, statewide assembly of arts organizations, educators, arts administrators, businesses, artists and individuals. Because of the support of those who value the arts, the South Carolina Arts Alliance is able to provide the following services in protecting, promoting and developing the arts industry in South Carolina:

- Maintain an effective arts advocacy network of friends of the arts and art education.
- Coordinate advocacy alerts and updates while building an informed advocacy base on state and national issues concerning arts and arts education.
- Host state and national arts advocacy day activities.
- Publish resource materials for networking and information
- Provide technical assistance through subsidies for travel and training, forums, consultancies, workshops and conferences
- Develop and maintain a Peer Advisory Network to provide affordable technical assistance to the field.
- Collaborate with local arts agencies and other statewide arts and cultural agencies while representing South Carolina with national and regional art service organizations.

The work of the SC Arts Alliance is funded with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the South Carolina Arts Commission, the Frederick S. Upton Foundation and the Max and Victoria Dreyfus Foundation.

Your support is crucial to our success.
Please join and help art work in South Carolina.
